How to Start Earning with Maison Croyez

Creative Guidelines

 - ✗ Don't lead with price, discounts, or promotions.
 - ✓ Focus on the feeling and experience of transforming your home.
 - ✗ Don't center the whole video around offers.
 - ✓ Mention promos only at the end as a CTA — never the core of your content.

Video Ideas

Hooks

- TikTok, why did no one tell me scent can help manifest too?
 - This is how I made my home smell luxurious without spending a fortune.
 - I thought all diffusers were the same... until I tried this one.
 - I never thought a fragrance could shift my mood like this.
 - What I used before vs. what I use now (cheap candles vs. Maison Croyez).
 - This is what I was missing to attract what I wanted.
(Pro tip: swap out “what I wanted” for love, abundance, focus, etc.)

CTA (Call-to-Action) Ideas

- If you see the orange cart below, it means they're back in stock.
 - They sell out fast — if I were you, I'd grab mine now.
 - Only buy from the official store (point down) — lots of knockoffs out there that aren't worth it.
 - If your space is asking for a shift... this is your sign.
 - I tried it because it was on sale. I stayed because of how it made my home feel.
