

Maison Croyez
Content Guidelines

1. What's Maison Croyez?

Maison Croyez is a luxury home fragrance brand created to help people shift the energy in their space through intentional scents. Each fragrance is designed to attract something you want more of: love, peace, clarity, abundance, or vitality. It's not just about smelling good — it's about transforming your space into a sanctuary of manifestation.

2. Why Can Maison Croyez Go Viral?

Because we play with emotion and belief. We make people feel that they can attract anything they want in life by choosing the right scent. Each fragrance is matched with a specific intention. That's it. That's the magic.

People believe in that. Just like they believe in magic candles or bracelets. And they share what they believe in.

11. Strategy for videos to go viral and get good results:

Hooks: It's recommended to use sentences as final outcomes of using the product.

Examples:

I found love. And all I did was shift the energy in my house.

My home stopped smelling like trash — and started feeling like me.

Since I started using this, I don't even need to turn the lights off to feel calm.

I finally found organic scents that actually last more than a day.

My guests never want to leave now. They say it smells like a five-star hotel.

My home feels warmer, lighter — like someone saged the whole space.

Every time I turn it on, something shifts. It's like hitting reset.

I wake up softer. I sleep deeper. My space does half the work now.

My anxiety's lower, my focus is sharper — and I didn't even leave the house.

I stopped buying candles. This changed everything about how I experience my home.

Body: The body of every video must be made of 5 to 7 short sentences, meaning micro-bodies.

Each one must connect directly to the next, like stepping stones: if you skip one, the message falls apart. Think of it like a string of thoughts that only make sense together.

Example:

1. I never thought a scent could change how I feel in my own home.

2. But once I experienced it, I knew this was more than fragrance.
3. It felt like energy in a bottle — and I use each one with a different purpose.
4. This one's for love, the other one's for abundance — it depends on what I need.
5. The moment I plug it in, my entire space responds like it knows my intention.
6. And it doesn't just smell good — it fills the room in minutes and lingers for weeks.
7. Now my space feels like me — warm, calm, and exactly how I want to feel.

Call to Action: Just use the ones explained above.
